Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 and 13-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Williams et al (WO 03/004668 A1).

Claims 1 and 13-15 are drawn to a composition comprising allicin in a water disinfectant or biocide solution. Williams et al teaches a composition comprising 1% (w/v) allicin in distilled water (p. 19, Example 4). Williams further teaches that said composition has antimicrobial properties and is useful as a food preservative and in the treatment of various microbial infections and other conditions (p. 13, lines 1-15).

Williams et al does not explicitly teach the use of said composition as a water disinfectant or biocide; however this is merely an intended use and does not limit the instant claims (see MPEP 2111.02, II). If the body of a claim fully and intrinsically sets forth all of the limitations of the claimed invention, and the preamble merely states, for example, the purpose or intended use of the invention, rather than any distinct definition of any of the claimed invention's limitations, then the preamble is not considered a limitation and is of no significance to claim construction. Pitney Bowes, Inc. v. Hewlett-Packard Co., 182 F.3d 1298, 1305, 51 USPQ2d 1161, 1165 (Fed. Cir. 1999). See also Rowe v. Dror, 112 F.3d 473, 478, 42 USPQ2d 1550, 1553 (Fed. Cir. 1997)
